

Music In Bunratty

Mark Halvey

The Bunratty Singers Performing Dúlaman

Characterisitcs of Irish Traditional Music that I heard

- I heard the musicians using ornamentation.
- I heard Irish traditional instruments being used.
- I heard the use of an Irish dance tune.

Instruments that I heard

- I heard the violin and the harp

Voices

- I heard 4 voices performing Dúlaman.
- I heard:
- A soprano
- An alto
- A tenor
- A Bass

Irish Dance Tunes

- Dúlamán has the same time signature as a reel. The interlude of the song is based on a strathspey, which is a Scottish dance similar to a reel.
- Time signature: 4/4
- Typical bar of rhythm of a reel is 2 groups of 4 quavers.

